

A Future-Proof Organization

Transforming the Focus of Leadership

The key to build a sustainable organization is having leaders that:

Are able to connect their vision with the broader outcomes.

Find the balance between the organization's business, technology, and people.

Therefore, as an organization's purpose and impact broaden, leaders' role, priorities, traits, skills, and behavior must also evolve.

Three Aspects of Leadership that Need to Evolve:

Role

Define the role of leaders in the new workspace

Priorities

Set new priorities that create a lasting impact beyond the business itself

Traits, Skills, and Behaviors

Identify attributes that leaders must now embrace and let go

If you could start with a blank page and adjust your leadership's focus, what would it look like?
